

South African Police Services Barberton Police Station 64, De Villiers Street - Barberton 1300

Devotional Reading

“Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God. The powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resists the power, resists the ordinance of God. And they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Will you then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and you shall have praise of the same. For he is the minister of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid; for he bears not the sword in vain. For he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that does evil. Wherefore you must need to be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. Also for this reason you pay tribute: for they are God’s ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.”

(Romans 13:1-7)

PRAYER

Almighty God, we entrust to Your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of this Police Station. Defend them in this day with Your Heavenly Grace, strengthen them in their trials and temptations, give them courage to face the perils which may threaten them, and grant them a sense of Your Abiding Presence wherever they may be today, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
